This agreement contains the entire understanding between the Licensee and Angel City Senior and supersedes any and all other written or oral communication. Licensee understands that failure to honor this agreement will result in immediate termination of services.

Nothing in this Agreement is intended nor will be construed to create a partnership relationship or an employer-employee relationship, a principle agent relationship or joint venture relationship between parties to have or to exercise control, direction or supervision over the professional judgment, manner, means or methods by which Angel City Senior performs the services which are the subject matter of this Agreement.
